The WaterMark Certification Process

Manufacturer has New Product

Manufacturer to engage WMCAB to establish if product requires certification

WMCAB to be registered by JASANZ

Notification to administering body

Does the product require certification?

Product is assessed with a consequence score of less than 3 Certification not required

No

END

Yes

Product will require certification. A full risk assessment against the Manual for the Assessment of Risks of Plumbing Products is required

WMCAB to assess the Product to establish Technical Requirements against WaterMark Schedule of Specifications & installation Standards

Is the use of the product covered by AS/NZS 3500?

No

Administering body to set conditions or limitations on installation

Yes

Can Product be evaluated to an existing WaterMark Product Standard or a WaterMark Technical Specification?

Yes

No

WMCAB & Approved User (Manufacturer) to develop Product Specification for approval

Has clearance from administering body been given?

Yes

Product Specification to administering body for Clearance

Has Product Specification been cleared by administering body?

Yes

No

WMCAB to confirm product manufactured to approved Standard or Specification

No

WMCAB & Approved User to re-work Product Specification

Specification to be developed as an Australian Standard within 2 years

Does the Product comply?

Yes

Administering body to monitor product included on the WaterMark Product Database

Administering body

Product conforms WMCAB to issue WaterMark

END

WMCAB to register Product on WaterMark Product Database

August 2016

Note: This flow chart is a guide only. It does not detail all the steps that may be encountered in the process.